

BE PART OF THE CHANGE

Learn more about a unique opportunity for your loved one to take part in an Alzheimer's disease clinical trial today.

Who Qualifies to Participate

- ◆ People who are from 60 to 85 years of age at the beginning of their study participation
- ◆ Show medical evidence of mild to moderate Alzheimer's Disease.
- ◆ Generally healthy enough to participate in all study activities and travel
- ◆ Have shown an important decline in memory and daily function from a previous level of ability
- ◆ Cause of memory loss is not due to stroke, cardiovascular, or other non-Alzheimer's causes
- ◆ No episodes of violence or aggression
- ◆ Not taking insulin
- ◆ Has never been diagnosed with breast cancer

Benefits of Participation

- ◆ All study treatments and tests will be conducted at no cost to you
- ◆ Complete physical examinations and comprehensive laboratory evaluations
- ◆ Detailed evaluations of cognitive function, memory, and recall
- ◆ There will be 11 trips to the study doctor over a period of about 7 months
- ◆ Study participants and their study partner/caregiver may also receive reimbursement for time spent traveling to the clinic and visits with the doctor

To Learn More

Contact: Kinza Waqar - New York Neurology Associates research@nyneurologists.com
(917) 633-5549